This publication is prepared under contract #J-9-J-9-0007 with the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor.

Acknowledgments

The National Longitudinal Survey of Youth 1997 (NLSY97) cohort is an expansive survey sponsored by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, and conducted by the National Opinion Research Center (NORC) at the University of Chicago with assistance from the Center for Human Resource Research (CHRR) at The Ohio State University. Additional funding has been provided by the U.S. Department of Defense, the U.S. Department of Justice, the U.S. Department of Education, and the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development.

This document pays tribute to the initiators of the NLS, Herbert S. Parnes and Howard Rosen, who had the vision to see that the collection of longitudinal data on the labor force experiences of men and women in the United States could provide a basis for policies fostering more efficient and equitable labor markets. Additional thanks are given to the NLSY97's current principal investigator, James Walker; project director, Rupa Datta; and to the staff at NORC who have contributed to this guide. Special thanks go to CHRR's director, Randall Olsen; Rosella Gardecki, the original guide compiler and an NLSY97 task leader; the NLSY97 archival task leader, Frank Marino; and the other members of the documentation team, Linda Boyer, Shawn Miller, and Jay Zagorsky.

Help and Information

This manual is one of a set of user-oriented documents available to the NLS research community that contain information on the Original Cohorts (Older Men, Young Men, Mature Women, and Young Women), the NLSY79, the Children of the NLSY79, and the NLSY97. Appendix A in this document contains a quick reference guide to essential information about the NLSY97. Persons needing more information on the NLS in general or the NLS cohort groups are encouraged to obtain copies of the NLS Handbook. Summaries of research using the NLS data over the past several decades are presented on-line in the NLS Annotated Bibliography of Research, located at <<http://www.nlsbibliography.org>>. Persons needing detailed information on the other cohorts should read the NLS of Mature Women User's Guide, the NLS of Young Women User's Guide, the NLSY79 User's Guide, and the NLSY79 Child Handbook 1986–1990; contact NLS User Services for more information on the men's cohorts. Information on ordering NLS documentation and data sets is available from NLS User Services, 921 Chatham Lane, Suite 100, Columbus, OH 43221-2418; phone (614) 442-7366, fax (614) 442-7329, or e-mail at <usersvc@postoffice.chrr.ohio-state.edu>. Information is also available online at <<http://www.bls.gov/nls>>, and orders can be placed online by following the "Ordering Data" link on that Web site.
